

AARON D. EVANS

Aaron D. Evans joined Sorling Northrup in 2016 after practicing in west-central Illinois for more than four years. Mr. Evans focuses his practice in the areas of estate planning, business, real estate, and taxation.

Mr. Evans regularly advises clients on trusts, wills, tax planning, long-term care planning, and administration of decedents' estates. Another large part of his practice includes advising businesses on entity formation, contracts, transactions, family succession planning, tax-free exchanges, and buying and selling a business. In addition, Mr. Evans practices in the sale and leasing of agricultural and commercial real estate.

Mr. Evans earned his Bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign where he completed dual majors in economics and finance with a concentration in business management. Aaron then earned his law degree from Florida Coastal School of Law, graduating in the top five percent of his class.
