

AMA E. MENDS

Ama Mends joined Sorling Northrup in 2021. Her practice focuses on health law with an emphasis on providing hospitals, health systems, and providers with regulatory, compliance, and corporate transaction assistance. In addition, Ms. Mends has civil litigation experience and works with businesses, public entities, and local governments in contract negotiations and disputes.

Prior to her arrival at Sorling, Ms. Mends worked for four years as a senior consultant at the leading U.S. supplier of health care IT solutions further honing her health care industry knowledge by leading multiple electronic health care implementations.

Ms. Mends earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Missouri-Columbia. She graduated from Saint Louis University (M.H.A., 2020) and received her Juris Doctor with a Health Law Certification from Saint Louis University School of Law in 2020.

During her law school career, Ms. Mends was a lead editor on the Saint Louis University Journal of Health Law and Policy, a student attorney in the Civil Advocacy Clinic, and inducted into the Alpha Sigma Nu Honor Society. Additionally, she interned at one of the largest nonprofit hospital systems in the United States gaining valuable in-house experience.

Ms. Mends is a member of the Illinois State, Central Illinois Women's, Sangamon County Bar, and American Health Law Associations.

Education

University of Missouri, Columbia, MO

– B.S. in Business Administration summa cum laude, 2013

Saint Louis University School of Law, St. Louis, MO

– J.D., 2020

– Dean's List

– Certificate in Health Law

Saint Louis University College for Public Health & Social Justice

– M.H.A., Master of Health Administration, 2020

Bar Admissions

Illinois

Practice Areas

Health Law, Commercial Litigation, Business
Advising, Transactions, Municipalities & Other
Units of Local Government

Email

aemends@sorlinglaw.com

SORLING
NORTHROP
ATTORNEYS